

DRUMGOFF WALK

24 Minute drive from Hotel - Parking at Drumgoff Forest Car Park

This route provides several access options to the open mountains below Carrawaystick Mountain. The route can also be started or finished at two of the upper car parks. The entrance to the lower car park can be found on the right after the bridge after passing the junction beside Glenmalure Lodge. This site has a small trail head and access point to the mountains to the west – Carrawaystick and Cloghernagh and the main summit of Lugnaquilla Mountain.

It is possible to access the Wicklow Way at this point and go north to Drumgoff Cross Roads or south towards the Iron Bridge.

The Mountain Access Route gives access to the remote area of Carrawaystick Mountain and Kelly's Lough.

Grade: Moderate, marked with White markers

Distance: 2 km

Estimated time: 1hrs

Total height climbed: 400m
