Avondale Cairn Walk

Avondale House, famed for its beautiful forests and Charles Stuart Parnell's home place. This walk starts in the children's playground and is an easy ramble along the open parkland known as the Great Ride to reach the Cairn. These rocks were assembled here when by the first foresters who cleared the land before planting. The route then goes in through a range of forest types. You'll see beech, oak, Sitka spruce, pine and Douglas fir along the way. The route is easy underfoot and suitable for sturdy children's buggies.
