

DERRYBAWN WOODLAND TRAIL (ORANGE ROUTE), LARAGH GLENDALOUGH

This walk starts with a steep climbing up beside the Polanass Waterfall before turn left and gaining a high forest road. From here an easier climb brings you above the valley before dropping back down to the Green Road and return through majestic Oak forests to the car park

Grade: Moderate, the route is marked with orange arrows

Distance: 8km

Estimated time: 2hrs

Total height climbed: 160m

Highest point: 280m

Terrain underfoot: Forest road and track.

Suitable for: Anyone looking for a longer walk with great views of the valley

Note: Do not take shortcuts down off the higher track

All Glendalough walking routes start from the visitors car park which is only a half hours drive from the Hotel
